

MULTI AGENCY BASIC RAPE CRISIS AND SEXUAL ASSAULT TRAINING:

This training has been developed by Talking Space Counselling Service, a Project of Harrogate & Area Council for Voluntary Service.

It is funded by the Big Lottery.

The facilitators will be from Talking Space Counselling Service and supported by North Yorkshire Police.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This training is aimed at frontline staff from statutory, voluntary and private organisations who may come into contact with survivors of rape or sexual assault.

It will help you feel more confident and effective so that you are able to provide support in situations where individuals disclose. The training will also give you the knowledge you require to 'signpost' to specialist providers if required.

Please note that this is BASIC awareness training aimed at people who have not had any previous training on this issue.

THE COURSE INCLUDES...

AIM

To equip frontline workers with the knowledge and confidence to respond in an appropriate and effective manner to disclosures of rape and sexual assault

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the training day, delegates should:

- Understand the legal definitions of rape and sexual assault
- Have an awareness of the impact of rape and sexual assault
- Be aware of appropriate responses to disclosure of rape or sexual assault
- Be aware of the police response and procedures in relation to rape and sexual assault
- Be aware of appropriate referral routes for clients
- Be aware of the role of the Crown Prosecution Service.
